This program will prepare you to lead and inspire children in PK-Grade 3 and advocate for them. Field hours are required in a variety of early childhood settings to best prepare you for working with young children. The program leads to early childhood certification/licensure and is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education and recognized by the National Association for the Education of Young Children.

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

• Official transcripts from all academic institutions; minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.5
• Official GRE scores; official TOEFL scores if your primary language is not English
• Undergraduate coursework reflecting a broad liberal arts background.
• Professional résumé and two letters of recommendation regarding your academic work/experience (one from someone who has observed you working with children).
• A cover letter stating your reasons for pursuing a teaching career, a self-assessment of professional goals, and statement of ability to perform essential teaching duties under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
